

PROBERS HEAR BANKER RELATE STORY OF FUND

Emerson Says He Organized Volunteer Contributors' Committee

New York Man Shows
Committee List of Collections Made

Washington, Oct. 28.—Guy D. Emerson, New York banker, chairman of the Republican contributors' committee, was examined by the senate committee investigating campaign funds. Emerson explained that since July he had been organizing volunteer contributors committees throughout the country to collect funds for the Coolidge-Dawes campaign. In addition to the committee work, he said a campaign had been conducted through the mails. He submitted a statement showing $598,000 collected from professional men, business interests and the various trades. New York's contribution to the Republican campaign fund now probably amounts to $960,000, Emerson said. He said he had no knowledge of any outside organizations collecting Republican funds. Attorney Weymouth Kirkland of Chicago was given the privilege of appearing for the Republican national committee. He emphasized that he was not present to defend the Republican committee, but to aid the investigation.

Kirkland said: "We have evidence on huge expenditures of the La Follette-Wheeler campaign that do not pass through the regular channels. We have lots of evidence showing coercion on the part of the different labor unions in an effort to tell men how to vote."

Frank P. Walsh of counsel for La Follette protested that the Republican committee had "slept on its rights" and was now coming into the investigation at the eleventh hour, proposing to take up time that should be used in submitting evidence already prepared against it.

Kirkland agreed to furnish a list of witnesses to testify regarding the La Follette campaign.

Attorney Undermyer asked Borah if the additional list of Republican contributors due to have been made Oct. 25 had reached the committee. When Borah replied that it had not, the attorney said it was "highly important that the list be available for examination before election."

Attorney Walsh made the charge that the Republican party is raising a "slush fund" of at least $1,000,000 to elect Coolidge and Dawes. "Our accountants estimated that for the 20 days remaining of the campaign after the 15th the collections will reach $200,000 a day," he asserted, explaining that these sums were in addition to the $2,200,000 collected before Oct. 15 from "bankers, trust magnates and other beneficiaries of the tariff," and $1,500,000 in contributed paid advertisements.

The committee decided to conduct two inquiries simultaneously, one here and the other in Chicago, beginning tomorrow. Chairman Borah and Senator Shipstead, Farmer-Labor of Minnesota, left for Chicago, while Senators Cawaway of Arkansas and Bayard of Delaware, Democrats, will conduct the Washington end of the investigation. Attorney Undermyer is accompanying Borah and Shipstead to cross-examine witnesses, who will include William L. Butler, chairman, and William V. Hodges, treasurer of the Republican national committee, and probably the Republican state chairman of Illinois and Ohio. Walsh will remain here to prosecute the case before the other section of the committee.

MAYOR IS OPPOSED TO DOUBLE PARADE

Niles, O., Oct. 28.—Knights of the Flaming Circle officials are at odds with Mayor Harvey C. Kistler of this city. They announced the tri-state convention and meeting of the society, scheduled for next Saturday will take place despite a statement by Mayor Kistler that the parade would not be tolerated, as the Ku Klux Klan has preference on this date. Information from circle headquarters here hints that a larger visiting delegation than the 25,000 scheduled klansmen will be in Niles from their different state orders.

Mayor Kistler said that the Knights of the Flaming Circle had not made any request of him for a permit to parade here on Saturday in connection with their convention. He added that if such a request was made he would refuse it, because the Ku Klux Klan had previously requested and been given a permit to parade on that day.

PERCY HOUGHTON, GRIDIRON WONDER MAN, IS DEAD

New York, Oct. 28.—Percy D. Houghton, wonder worker of the gridiron dead from an attack of heart disease as he stood on the brink of his greatest achievement today was mourned by his followers at Columbia University and by his friends on every rival campus throughout the east.

MARRIES FOR SEVENTH TIME AT 75

MR. & MRS. CHARLES BABB, JR. Mrs. Babb, of Penacook, N. H., is shown here with her seventh wife, who was Miss Cecilia Stevens, a Boston storekeeper. The wedding was performed in the railway station at Boscawin, N. H., because Babb's friend, the station master, is also town clerk, authorized to officiate at wedding ceremonies.

He died in harness from an illness which struck him as he was pulling on his football tugs just before going to the practice field where he had moulded the first representative football team Columbia has had in ten years. His death came less than 48 hours after the Blue and White's decisive victory over Williams, a victory which convinced football followers that he could translate to Columbia the Houghton system made famous at Harvard in his nine years as head coach there.

It was his second season as head coach at Columbia and the improved showing of the Blue and White eleven held promise that the Houghton "will to win" and systematic discipline were producing something Columbia had not known in years—a winning team.

Houghton was 49 years old. His home was in Boston.

A football and baseball star at Harvard as a member of the class of 1889 he returned as coach to his alma mater in 1908 and in nine years brought the Crimson five victories, two ties and two defeats in the all-important games with Yale. Before Houghton, Harvard had gained but three victories to Yale's twenty-one. The Houghton system won 71 games and tied five out of 85.

No announcement had been made early today regarding the Columbia-Cornell game Saturday, which may be called off. It was not known whether the Columbia team would complete the season's schedule.

COUNTESS SCHOENBORN

Although born in Philadelphia of the famous Wolf family, Kitty Wolf was reared in Munich. Before she was twenty she was married there to an American dentist named Spotswood, whom she divorced in 1921, later to marry Count Erwin Schoenborn in Paris. She divorced him later, and now is to marry Baron Eugene Rothschild, member of the famous family of financiers.

ARREST MAIL ROBBER

GLASSCOCK AND WIFE CAPTURED FOR BIG THEFT

Pair Confess Part In $2-
000,000 Roundout Theft
Last June

Nabbed at Battle Creek
Where They Were Accepted in Society

Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 28.—Brent Glasscock, alias Brent Howard, and his wife, Avis, who have been popular members of the social set at the Battle Creek sanitarium since their arrival here three weeks ago, are held today by federal officials, the man as the last of the six principals in the Roundout, Illinois, $2,000,000 mail robbery of June 12, and the woman as a conspirator sharing his guilt.

The Glasscocks were arrested last night in the fashionable west end home where they had taken a suite when Glasscock started a course of stomach treatments at the sanitarium on their arrival here. Acting on a tip from postoffice inspectors, police visited the house, gained entrance through subterfuge, and confronted the couple in their suite.

When shown the postoffice circulars advertising a reward for their arrest, Glasscock and his wife surrendered without resistance admitted their identity, according to police.

Mrs. Glasscock had a sumptuous wardrobe, appraised by police at $10,000 in the suite. She was wearing at least $25,000 worth of gems and had in her possession about $4,000 in currency and a sack of unset diamonds as large as both fists. Its value has not been estimated.

Since coming to Battle Creek, the couple had entered into social affairs of the city, gaining entrance through the coterie at the sanitarium, where foregathered social leaders from many cities. They said they lived in Kansas, and that they had returned only recently from a honeymoon in Canada, hunting.

Glasscock is about 40 and his wife about 35.

Glasscock has a long criminal record, according to postal inspectors who arrived here early today to take the prisoners to Chicago. He has been tried twice for murder, but has beaten both charges.

His arrest completes the round up of suspects in connection with the daring robbery of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul train last June, in which $2,000,000 was taken by the bandits near Roundout, Illinois.

The other five are in cells in Chicago, in default of $100,000 bail each.

REPORTS DISTRICT ATTORNEYS OUSTED

Washington, Oct. 28.—Attorney General Stone announced that the resignations of four United States district attorneys have been asked within the past few weeks and six such officials have already resigned. This upheaval and a "general betterment in enforcement," Stone said, resulted from the letter of Mrs. Mabel Willebrandt, assistant attorney general, to the Philadelphia Law Enforcement league last July. Mrs. Willebrandt's letter recently came into the limelight when Samuel Undermyer of New York charged that conditions concerning "politics in prohibition enforcement" as set forth in the communication had not been remedied.

DEATH OF FATHER WILL NOT OPEN GATES OF JOLIET FOR RICHARD LOEB TO GO TO FUNERAL

Chicago, Oct. 28.—Possibility that the death of his father, Albert H. Loeb, might open the gates of Joliet State penitentiary for a few brief hours, before Richard A. Loeb, slayer of Robert Franks, appeared remote here today as preparations for simple private funeral services for the capitalist were being made. News of Loeb's death was brought to the penitentiary shortly before midnight last night. Warden Whitman communicated his sympathy to members of the Loeb family and advised them that, at their request and with Governor Small's permission, Richard would be permitted freedom under guard to attend the last rites for his father. Today, however, members of the family indicated that no such request would be made. The chief reason for this, it was said, was a realization of the notoriety and distasteful publicity which would accompany Richard's attendance.

Definite plans for the funeral had not been completed today, but it was expected the services would be strictly private, only close friends and immediate members of the family being permitted to attend.

Loeb's death did not come as a surprise to members of his family or his friends. He had been in precarious health for two years and his condition had been aggravated several months ago by another ailment diagnosed as angina pectoris.

Three days before his son confessed the kidnapping and slaying of Robert Franks, Loeb was taken seriously ill and was confined to his bed. He was not advised of the confession for several days. The last time he saw his son was when Richard came into his bedroom to advise him that "he was going down town with a policeman."

"I'm going down town with a policeman for a little while, Dad," he told his parent. "They want to question me about this Franks case. I'll be back in two or three hours."

He never came back and his father never saw him again.

During the trying days of his son's trial, the father was recuperating at his Charlevoix Michigan estate and he gained strength so rapidly there that he returned to town shortly after the verdict.

Here, however, his old ailment returned and he rapidly became worse. A week ago attending physicians knew that the end was not far distant.

Today members of the family and physicians who attended Loeb, denied that his son's connection with the Franks case had hastened Loeb's death.

Loeb was born in Rockford, Ill., February 18, 1868.

PERSIA WILL SEND ENVOY TO AMERICA TO EXPLAIN MURDER

Action Taken In Case Of Vice Consul Imbrie It Is Announced

Washington, Oct. 28.—Bagher M. Kazemi, charge d'affaires of the Persian legation here, informed Acting Secretary of State Joseph C. Grew of the decision of his government to send an envoy to the United States to explain to the state department the Persian government's attitude regarding the murder of Vice Consul Robert W. Imbrie by a fanatic mob in Teheran, and to relieve any tension between the two governments due to the apparent failure of the Persian authorities to carry out sentence of death against all the chief instigators of the crime. The statement adds:

"The Persian government has not spared a moment of its time, effort and power from seeing to it that the guilty persons are brought to justice and punished accordingly. The Persian government has also done everything in its power to bring about the satisfaction of the state department as well as that of the widow of the deceased. The present government of Persia considers the friendly relations of our respective nations as one of their essential policies and due respect to the official representatives of this country and protection to the citizens of the United States will always be rendered."

Toledo, Oct. 28.—Tearing his hand through a handcuff and leaping through a coach window while the train was running 40 miles an hour, William Kennedy, sentenced from this city to serve three years at Atlanta federal prison on a narcotic charge, is a fugitive from justice among the hills along the Tennessee and Georgia boundary. Kennedy was handcuffed to another prisoner, Walter Pinski. When guards, who heard the noise of Kennedy's leap, ran to the seat they found Pinski dangling the empty cuff, which was blood-stained.

EXPECT RECORD VOTE AT POLLS NEXT TUESDAY

Heavy Registration Leads To Belief Balloting
Will Be Large

Washington, Oct. 28.—A record vote at the polls next Tuesday is predicted by political leaders here. Registration has been heavy in the cities and interest in the campaign has been enlivened in the country districts.

The National League of Women voters has been engaged in a nationwide campaign to get out the vote. The drive by the organization has helped to swell the total registration, which shows an increase nearly everywhere over that of 1920, and in some cases a very great increase, according to a statement giving figures of the gains.

Large cities and small have increased numbers of voters this year. In New York city 1,494,130 are qualified to vote this year, a gain of 8.7 per cent over 1920. The increase in Chicago is 13 per cent, with 1,068,190 qualified to cast ballots for president there.

William M. Butler, chairman of the Republican national committee, opened the final week of the political campaign with a statement expressing confidence in the success of the Coolidge-Dawes ticket at the election Nov. 4. Farmers and working men, Butler asserted, will support the Republican ticket, so that "the economic condition, now so rapidly improving, will not be disturbed."

Senator La Follette issued a statement predicting an independent victory. He declared analysis of increased registration figures in various sections showed that the new registrations have been heaviest in the wards and precincts where his support is strongest.

Robert W. Wooley, director of publicity for the Democratic national committee, in a letter to Postmaster General New attacked New's charges of graft in the Wilson administration and charged that a high official in the Republican administration lost $180,000 speculating in Mexican Seaboard, Bethlehem Steel and Pure Oil.

La Follette headquarters in a statement reiterated that Mrs. Mabel Willebrandt of the department of justice is "withholding the truth from the public in prohibition enforcement matters in order to shield the Republican party."

Fifty-three eastern men and women, prominent in the 1912 progressive movement, in a statement urged the members of their party to vote for Coolidge.

To Lay Cornerstone.
Springfield, O., Oct. 28.—Four thousand Masons are expected to attend the cornerstone laying of the new $750,000 temple here. Howard Dwight Smith, architect, and Campbell Voorhees, past grand master, will take part in the ceremonies. A parade of the Masonic bodies will precede the ceremonies.

Teachers' Honor Guests.
Columbus, Oct. 28.—Speakers for the Central Ohio Teachers' association, to be held Nov. 7 and 8 in Columbus, will be honor guests on the opening evening at a dinner arranged by the Columbus Teachers' federation. One representative from each school will be present. Honor guests will be Dallas Lore Sharp, Boston university; William Mather Lewis, president of George Washington Memorial university; Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, author; Albert S. Cook, state superintendent of schools of Maryland; Dr. William McAndrew, superintendent of Chicago schools, and Charles E. Watkins, head of the welfare department of the General Motors association, Muncie, Ind.

COUNTESS SAID TO BE BOLSHEVİK IS PERMITTED TO LAND

New York, Oct. 28.—Countess Catherine Karolyi, wife of the former president of Hungary, who was declared by S. S. Menken, president of the American Security league, to be a "menace" and a "bolshevik," landed from the steamship George Washington, without hindrance by authorities.

The countess, who is still in her twenties, is the descendant of one of the oldest aristocratic families of Europe. Her husband's estates in Hungary, valued at $30,000,000, were seized by the Horthy government.

Mr. Menken charged that, according to reports which he received in Budapest last summer, the countess is regarded as the most valuable ally the Bolsheviks have in central Europe. He said the countess was known in Hungary as "Red Catherine," and declared that according to the Italian police her object in coming to this country was the establishment of communistic groups.

Receives Life Sentences.
Cleveland, Oct. 28.—Mrs. Virginia Kirk, 30, was sentenced to Marysville reformatory for life after a jury had found her guilty of shooting to wound. She shot Ernest Shreve, 35, after quarreling about an automobile repair bill he claimed her husband owed him, evidence showed.

COMPANION IN SLAYING OF CLEVELAND OFFICER IS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Joe Prymas, Accomplice of Holt in Murder of Patrolman
Michael Hohnel, Is Arrested After Attempt To Commit Suicide.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 28.—Following an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide when he felt the police ring which had been laid about his hiding place growing nearer and escape cut off, Joe Prymas, sought as the actual slayer of Patrolman Michael Hahn, Shaker Heights police officer, was arrested by Cleveland police today, and was immediately taken to the detective bureau, where he was given a severe grilling.

Prymas, who earlier in the day, was believed to have drowned himself in the river at Lorain, when accosted by a police officer there, attempted to take his own life in a basement of a house in East Fifty Ninth Street. Dr. J. E. Bryant, a physician, who was called, recognized Prymas from his printed pictures and summoned police, slight and officers took him to headquarters for grilling.

"We've got the man," said Chief of Police Jacob Graul grimly.

"Before tonight, we'll have complete confessions, and it won't be long after that before indictments are returned and trials held."

Albert Holt, "red head," caught by Wheeling police Sunday, after a thrilling manhunt, had made confession, police say, today, although they believe that he is still holding something back.

Warrants charging murder have already been issued against both Prymas and Holt.

Hahn, a police officer in Shaker Heights, an exclusive residential suburb, was shot and fatally wounded in a stolen car after he had arrested two men for careless driving. He jumped in their car to take them to police station. Shortly afterwards, fatally wounded, he was found in an isolated spot, a wound in his abdomen. He died a few days later.

Rewards totalling $6,000 have been offered for the arrest and conviction of his slayers.

Holt and Prymas will be indicted, Prosecutor Edward C. Stanton said today under an Ohio law, making the killing of a policeman in the discharge of duty, murder in the first degree, whether or not premeditation is proved.

Cleveland, Oct. 28.—Albert Holt had confessed to police that he was in the automobile in which Patrolman Michael Hahn of Shaker Heights was fatally shot and then thrown from the car on the night of Oct. 17, County Prosecutor Stanton announced. Holt was captured near Wheeling, W. Va., after an exciting 30-mile chase.

Holt implicated Joseph Prymas in his confession, saying the latter fired the fatal shot. Holt broke down when he was confronted with his woman companion in his flight, Mrs. Margaret Horton, and was told of her confession that he had told her of his part in the shooting. "I drove the car and Joe was in the back seat with the officer," police said Holt told them. "Joe and the policeman got into an argument about our arrest for not stopping. The gun went off, Joe said it was accidental. I didn't have anything to do with the shooting." A warrant charging first degree murder was issued for Prymas.

DAMAGES AWARDED MOTHER WHOSE SON LOST LIFE AT SEA

New York, Oct. 28.—In federal district court here a verdict for $20,000 damages was awarded Mrs. Adelaide C. Nelson of Philadelphia for the death of her son, Lawrence, aged 20, a member of the crew of the steamship Frederick, which sank in mid-Atlantic in January, 1916, while en route from this port to Archangel with a cargo of war munitions. The jury which returned the verdict held that the Frederick's owners, Charles W. Morse, his son, Benjamin, and Captain Mark L. Gilbert, had been guilty of conspiracy in sending the vessel to sea with the knowledge that she was unseaworthy. The 30 members of the crew were all lost. Attorneys for the Morses said they would appeal the verdict to the United States circuit court of appeals.

The Frederick, witness testified, was considered so unseaworthy by engineers who had brought her here from Baltimore that they later refused to put to sea in her.

GIRL WHO CLUBBED FATHER TO DEATH IS UNDER ARREST

Moravia, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Suzanna Riley, 19, alleged slayer of her father, Charles Riley, 60, farmer, is being held here for observation. District Attorney Ben Kenyon ordered the girl placed under arrest technically on an open charge. She will be held at the hospital for several days for observation of her mental condition. Dr. Leslie Snow, Cuyahoga county jail physician, who examined the girl, said she was suffering from mental disorders.

Suzanna, it is charged, clubbed her father to death. After refusing to let her take a position in Auburn, Riley retired to a couch. The girl got an iron bar, and while her father slept, beat him to death. The killing was discovered by another daughter of the victim, Miss Myrtle Riley, 21, who found Suzanna kneeling beside the bloody form of her father.

EXPECT DECISION ON LEGALITY OF INCOME PUBLICATION SOON

Washington, Oct. 28.—In a decision as to the legality of newspapers publishing income tax returns probably will be forthcoming in about 24 hours, it was learned at the department of justice today.

Experts of the department have submitted an opinion to the attorney general, but he was able to give it only a brief study before going to cabinet meeting at the White House.

It was considered probable that the question would occupy some discussion in the cabinet session.

OHIOAN TELLS OF LA FOLLETTE PLOT TO GATHER MONEY

Columbus, O., Oct. 28.—In a letter to Senator William E. Borah, chairman of the senate committee investigating campaign funds, Chairman Harry C. Arnold, Franklin county Republican executive committee, today asserted that he was informed of an alleged attempt of the LaFollette-Wheeler headquarters at Chicago to raise funds by making every druggist in the United States a distributor of the LaFollette-Wheeler campaign buttons offering the druggist 20 per cent of the sale price of all buttons.

The buttons are being sold at from 25 cents to a dollar, according to Arnold.

"I note that the committee claims they only expect to use about $400,000 in their national campaign," the letter states.

"It is easy to compute that with more than 45,000 druggists in the country at only $10 dollars per druggist the committee will have paid out $90,000 in commissions and still have left $360,000 from this one source."

Arnold submitted the foregoing information together with a card of buttons and a letter said to have been received by a local druggist, for use in the senate investigation.

BRITISH ELECTION CAMPAIGN WINDING UP IN BITTERNESS

London, Oct. 28.—The election campaign, which will terminate at the polls tomorrow, is winding up in a storm of hatred.

The Tory press today was unanimous in its denunciation of Premier MacDonald, while the Daily Herald, the labor organization, continues its "exposure" of what it terms "the machinations of a plot by the press of England."

The real truth of the "soviet plot note" which M. Zinovieff, its supposed signer, denounces as a forgery, will not be known until after the election as there is not sufficient time to determine the truth of the charges made by the president of the Communist Internationale.

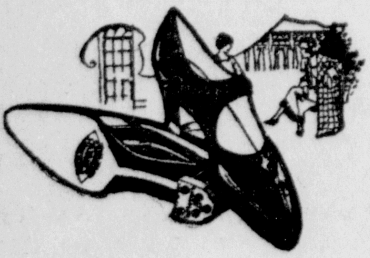

Premier MacDonald has summoned Gregory, of the foreign office, to Wales, directing that he bring the documents in the case with him.

Disorders continue to mark the closing hours of the campaign. Viscount Curzon was mobbed, his car damaged and two companions knocked out, Lord Beaverbrook was forced to call for a police guard in leaving a meeting broken up by rioters at Milend and Lloyd George was met with a chorus of "boos" when he tried to speak at Camberwell.

Predictions as to the outcome tomorrow were still difficult to make today, but it seems fairly certain the Tories will gain in seats and may be able to form the next government, with labor as their chief opponents.

Labor Attacks Robinson.

Columbus, Oct. 28.—The Columbus Federation of Labor issued a statement calling for the defeat of Supreme Court Judge Robinson, Republican candidate for re-election, because of his stand in the East Ohio Gas company's case decision, which, it is claimed, gave the gas companies control in disputes with the public over rates. The resolution also condemns Judge Robinson because of his concurrence in the Davis ripper bill, denying a referendum.

FINANCIAL REPORT SHOWS STAR COURSE EARNS SCHOOL MONEY

A complete financial statement of last year's public school lyceum course has been made public.

The report follows: total receipts from sale of season tickets, single admission tickets and advertising, $1,152.22; disbursements: Coit-Alber Lyceum Bureau for Rainbow orchestra, $250.00; for Frederick Ward, $150.00; for Vivian Players, $200.00; May M. Harper, prize to Junior High for selling tickets, $8.00; Eckerle Printing Co., printing, $19.50; Buckeye Press, printing, $3.75 and $2.50; Coit-Alber Lyceum Bureau for Mary Adel Hays Opera Singers, $85.00; for Robert Parker Miles, $60.00; Buckeye Press, printing, $4.00; Twin City Scenic Co., scenery for auditorium stage, $310.00; Disbursements total $1,092.75 leaving a balance on hand at Commercial Savings Bank of $59.47.

The above statement can be verified with the books at the board of education office or at the Commercial and Savings Bank.

The main object in giving a lyceum course under the auspices of the school is to provide the school and the public with high-class lectures and musical numbers, it is announced. Making money is a secondary matter. If any profit is made this year it will be used in providing some permanent and valuable adjunct to the school.

The school board is again guaranteeing satisfactory seats to all adult season ticket holders this year. Last year some difficulty was experienced in doing this because the school officials were inexperienced in handling this feature in the new auditorium. The mistakes of last year will be corrected just as far as possible this year, it is said.

FAILED TO BE 'ADMONISHED' BY SOLOMON

Towards the very last part of the Bible book of Ecclesiastes King Solomon says: "And further, by these, my son, be admonished, of making of many books there is no end, and much study is a weariness of the flesh." To admonish is to warn, to reprove with wildness. And of what are we warned—that much study is a weariness of the flesh. Solomon, in this book, in which he announces himself 'the preacher,' tells of the thousands of things he had tried and in most cases proved to be vanity. Well, he certainly had more "experience" than most persons will have. And yet people keep on making books and newspapers. The latest of the latter to which we have subscribed is a very comprehensive one by the name of "Time," which says it is a "weekly news magazine." The publishers took not Solomon's admonition, and brag that they did not do so, claiming to be encouraged by success.

We made this notice to let our readers know the source of any thing published in our column which is credited with the Short Word Time. It was started in New York about a years ago.

A SIGNIFICANT "RED, WHITE AND BLUE" FIRST PAGE

Next Saturday will be the first day of November 1924, and Tuesday after it will be the 4th day of November, election day, all over the United States. Our religious paper, the Christian Herald, devotes the first page thereof to urging people to do their duty on that day by printing the word "Vote" in three inch sized letters in White on a solid 4 by 10 inch background of Red; followed by the words, "Do your duty as Christian Citizens;" and this followed by the words, "Vote Your Convictions," in White letters on a heavy Blue background. The whole making a very attractive "Red, White and Blue" admonition to voters. And in this connection we are to remember the millions of women many of whom will vote for the first time. Let us all vote.

THE RADIO TRIUMPH OVER HIGH-FALUTIN' ORATORY

For one thing, the radio puts a limit on the length of a speech. The old-fashioned two or three hour talks which Western Progressives have trained up their audiences to expect are gone as completely as the old-fashioned sermon, with its firstly and secondly up, perhaps to tenthly. You can only have the use of the radio for a brief period. And again, the two little discs in front of a speaker's face absolutely confine him to a fixed spot on the platform. He must stand practically still. If he moves one step to the left or to the right his speech is ruined. Also his voice must be kept within narrow limits. He cannot shout. He cannot lower his voice. All the little tricks by which an audience is played upon are precluded. A speaker cannot be dramatic. There is not much difference between a beautiful voice and a bad voice after it has been mechanized. The radio and the amplifier are the final triumph of democracy over oratory.

DEATH OF NOTED MAN

Herman H. Kohlsaat, 71, famed editor, died at the home of Secretary of Commerce Hoover, where he was visiting, in Washington, D. C., following a stroke of paralysis. The friend of five Presidents—McKinley, Roosevelt, Taft, Wilson, Harding, four of whom are now dead—he started his career as a caterer, later selling the chain of restaurants, which he controlled and entering the newspaper field in Chicago. He owned and edited at different times the Chicago Inter-Ocean, Times-Herald, Record-Herald, Evening Post. His services to the Republican cause brought him into contact with many a famed man, made it possible for him—for he never accepted an office—to become great by refusing great ones, notorious while shunning notoriety. A genial, meager, shrewd little man, he had a talent for friendship and an ability to make friends.

to stick to his principles, no matter how little they profited him. He told about his political adventures in a book of memoirs "From McKinley to Harding." One of his greatest coups was his success in having the word "gold" inserted in the Republican platform in 1896.—Time.

DR. FOSDICK RESIGNS PULPIT

Rev. Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick has tendered his resignation as special preacher at the First Presbyterian Church in New York City rather than comply with the General Assembly's suggestion that he enter the Presbyterian ministry and thus regularize the relationship which has been the occasion of so much controversy. It was not any disinclination to change his denomination affiliation that impelled his refusal, Dr. Fosdick wrote, but the proposal called "for a solemn assumption of theological vows in terms of the Westminster Confession" and he felt that "any subscription made under such circumstances would be generally and, I think, truly interpreted as moral surrender. I am entirely unwilling to give any occasion for the questioning of my ethics." The First Church has not acted as yet on the resignation.

THE MAGIC OF AUTUMN

It's a glorious day with the sun overhead
And the maples off yonder in cardinal red,
And the elms spilling gold on the floor of the world,
And the sumach ablaze as the picture's unfurled;
Oh, poor little genius known as a man,
Work up such wonders as this if you can!

It's a glorious day, with the magic of fall
Working its changes too swift for us all;
Now the green turns to gold, in the glint of the sun,
But not one of us knows how this marvel is done;
From the high hat of autumn gay ribbons are tossed,
And man merely calls it the work of the frost.

Here's a performance which dazzles the eye!
Here are illusions no Hindoo dare try!
Valley and hill top and forest and field
In garments of beauty are strangely revealed.

Oh, who can detect it, or who can explain.
Or what can equal such legerdemain?
The world is the stage, without curtain or wing,
Where autumn performs for the peasant and king;
No velvet-topped table he needs for his feast
As he scatters his silver and gold at our feet;
We see the scenes change in the glint of the sun,
But none of us knows how such wonders are done.

Plunged Through Draw.

Toledo, Oct. 28.—Joseph Williams and John Knox were drowned when they speeded their automobile around a line of machines waiting at the open draw of a bridge, crashed through the gates and toppled into the Maumee river channel.

Effective Means Of Reducing Fat

Here is an extraordinary method of reducing weight—extraordinary because no starvation diets or violent exercises are necessary. Marmola Prescription Tablets are made exactly in accordance with the famous Marmola Prescription. They reduce you steadily and easily, with no ill effects. Procure them from your druggist at one dollar for a box or send price direct to the Marmola Company, General Building, Detroit, Mich. Once you start taking these tablets and losing your fatness, you will be happy again.

Answer: I have just had a two-page article entitled "Eight Good Desserts" multigraphed to send out to any of my readers who send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope with a request for it. These recipes are too long to publish in the column so I would advise you to send for them. Have your stamped return envelope large enough to hold two sheets of typewriter-size paper, folded. It is hard to get a multigraphed article into an under-sized envelope, such as so many readers send! I know your family will enjoy these desserts.

Mrs. C. C.: "Some time ago Mrs. H. H. asked about dill pickles. I want to tell her how I have put up 12 two-quart-size jars with this recipe: My Dill Pickles: I washed 250 cucumbers measuring about four and one-half inches long and then packed them in the fruit jars with dill. I had previously boiled water, to every gallon of which I had added one cup of vinegar one cup of salt, then let this stand till cold. I poured this over the pickles and dill in the jars, and sealed. This is a good way to put up cucumbers and also an easy way."

Answer: I imagine that your recipe will help many housewives besides Mrs. H. H. It is always helpful to learn of various house-keepers' ways, so that we can try many methods of doing a thing and select that which we find, personally, most successful.

Tomorrow—Making Candy at Home.

4 MONTHS AGO WEAK SICKLY OLD MAN—NOW DANCES—SAYS HE WILL WED AGAIN

HOW WEALTHY OLD CLUB MAN GAINED 22 POUNDS NOW EATS LIKE A YOUNGSTER AND FEELS FIT AGAIN

New York, N. Y.—John Marchbanks Evans, a 60-year-old retired business man of this city, who recently paid a large sum of money to medical experts for a new gland treatment, announces his intention to marry again. "I feel 25 years younger," says Mr. Evans.

It was disclosed yesterday that a noted scientist has agreed to offer this discovery of organic glands, phosphates, and iron (known as the Kath treatment) to anyone—poor or rich—who needs its up-building power, at a tiny fraction of the usual cost.

"The Kath gland treatment," says Dr. Joseph Caramelli, consulting physician to The Hospital Jesus Marie, of Naples, Italy, "is one of the greatest medical discoveries of the age."

"There are important glands in the body that influence the power of our organs. Age, worry, over-work and excesses of modern life wear out the glands' supply and they dry up. Immediately the signs of old age begin to show, and you look and feel all dried up," too.

Tests show how Kath quickly helps to put new life in these old glands in many cases. As the gland supply enters the blood you feel stronger, full of life—you want to get out and do all the things in home, social and business life that you did when you were younger. You eat. You sleep. You think clearly—all because of this new gland treatment.

Make This Test:

First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Next start taking the tiny tablets of Kath according to directions. Then weigh yourself and measure yourself each week and continue taking Kath until you are satisfied with your gain in weight, appetite and energy. Any druggist will supply Kath without a prescription, and will guarantee results or refund money.

TOURNAMENT ENDS GOLF SEASON HERE

Golf activities for women at the Xenia Country Club, for the year 1924, came to a close Monday morning with a two ball foursome, mid-iron tournament of eighteen holes which was won by Mrs. C. E. Fisher and Mrs. S. O. Hale. Mrs. C. A. Weaver and Mrs. S. M. McKay copped second place in the tournament.

There were twelve entries in the tournament, and these were divided into three foursomes. Luncheon at the club house followed the tournament. Mrs. E. H. Heathman was chairman of the luncheon committee.

THAT "GET THERE"

I watched a horse race at a County Fair this summer. There were four starters. I watched the first half mile; then I picked the one I thought would win. This horse was not then leading.

I noticed that all but this one man and his horse kept plunging forward in spurts, now one, now the other. But the one I had picked had a steady gait and the driver seemed to urge little by little, little by little, until on the home stretch he passed them all and won.

To myself I said: "That man and horse had the Get-There spirit."

Very little is achieved by spurts and sudden starts. There must be a real urge of vital meaning back of any desire to win anything that is worth while and permanent.

I often meet a man whose personality radiates what he is. He has that Get-There spirit. Of course he doesn't always win what he sets out to get. My, no! That would soon slow him up and he would probably grow stale. No one can—or ought—to win all the time.

We need all the opposition and hardships that come our way to smooth us into fighters for the days of tasks that call for iron nerve and—that Get-There.

Honesty isn't enough, willingness isn't all, even industry. There has to be that desire to win, that determination to keep passing your best in order that Success may be able to smile her sweetest smile for you.

When things get dark and rather mussy up it's fine to be able to reach into some hidden corner of your make-up and say: "Oh, here is just what I need at this great moment, my Get-There spirit!"

So, therefore, without any foolish display of the fact, keep in reserve that "Get-There" of yours.

"If at first you don't succeed, try, try again," is the motto of the Central High school football team, and the aggregation is putting in some stiff practice sessions this week in preparation for the Friday game with Troy High School at Cox Memorial Athletic Field.

Statistics show that Troy's team this year is something of a puzzle. After holding Roosevelt High School, of Dayton, to a 7 to 6 score in its opening game of the season, Troy has been beaten by wide margins at the hands of Piqua and Greenville but later returned to something like midseason form and walloped Tippecanoe City by a 6 to 0 margin.

Roosevelt beat Springfield High several weeks ago, by a score of 26 to 7, and the law of averages would say that Xenia high which was humbled by Springfield by the score of 27 to 6 last Saturday would lose to Troy by a score of 29 to 0.

On the other hand, Greenville is said to have beaten Troy about 60 to 0 recently, but only succeeded in licking Xenia by a 27 to 0 count, which would mean that Xenia should triumph over Troy by a score of 33 to 0.

Xenia is not going by averages however, and with about four stiff practice sessions before it, should be in the best of trim when Troy is met, barring its old jinx, injuries.

There was only one casualty, of a serious nature in the Springfield game, Wackey, a guard, getting his nose broken, while the remainder of the team came out of the game in fine shape.

Xenia's eleven is also something of a puzzle this year, as figures show that the local team has played each opposing eleven about even in the matter of first downs, passes completed and in other ways, but the defense seems to crack at critical points and the offensive is sadly lacking in a scoring punch when it is needed.

With four more teams yet to be faced this year, Central has a chance to come out about even on the schedule providing the remainder of the games are chalked up on the winning side of the ledger and this feat is not an impossibility.

Troy and Roosevelt are to be played at Cox Memorial Field on successive weeks, while the Washington C. H. game on Thanksgiving day is to be played at Washington and the Wilmington game a week previous is to be played there.

ELEAZER

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Smith and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Beal.

The Rev. Mr. Horney of Sharonville, Ohio, called on Mrs. Mary Hartsook Monday. The Rev. Mr. Horney was pastor of the Eleazer Circuit twenty-one years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Jones and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Jones Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neff and daughter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Neff.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bennington of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Ary and family of New Burlington and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bennington of Morrow, O., enjoyed a family dinner at their parents home, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Bennington, Sunday.

Miss Ruth Chitty attended a teachers' meeting at Cincinnati Saturday.

Prisoner Escapes.

St. Clairsville, O., Oct. 23.—Roy Stone, 27, of Holloway, escaped from a deputy sheriff, who was taking him and two other prisoners to the Belmont county jail following a preliminary hearing on a charge of stealing auto accessories.

RECIPES WE HAVE TESTED

The Gazette-Republican has a number of home tried recipes handed in by women of the city at the time of the Gazette-Republican Home Makers Cooking School recently conducted in this city. These recipes will be published each day under the above heading until all of the recipes presented at that time have been used. Women of the city and county are invited to send in their favorite recipes and these will be published for the benefit of the other women of the community. If sufficient interest is manifested in the new department it will be continued indefinitely.

MASCOTTES MAY BE OPPONENTS OF THE IMPERIALS SUNDAY

The attraction at Washington Park this Sunday will in all probability be the Dayton Mascottes according to Manager Wones of the Imperials who will go to Dayton Tuesday night to confer with Norman Witte, Manager of the Mascottes.

Should Manager Wones line up the Mascottes the fans can be sure of seeing a team that has been together for five seasons or more and a team that is good. The Mascottes were southern Ohio football champs one year while at another time they were 160 pound champs of Dayton. Manager Witte has a real team and such stars as Rudolph, former Osborn Indian half, Leis, Fisher, and Huber are with the Dayton grid outfit. Huber is the lad who really beat the East Side A. C. as he scored three touchdowns against the Rickman tribe.

The locals in preparation for the game will hold a stiff signal drill Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock and all are requested to be on hand. The locals will no doubt be outweighed by Witte's bunch but they are confident they can put up a strenuous game and defeat the Gem City gridders.

THE WORST IS YET TO COME—

Modish Mitzi—Polly Has a Birthday; Nobody's to Know It.

By Jay V. Jay

It's not that Polly is old. No, she's quite decidedly young. But it isn't enough to be young, one must also look it! That's why Polly is keeping her age a dark secret—she's firmly determined that no one will ever say how young she looks for her age because no one ever is going to know her age.

And being young is so much a matter of clothes that Polly goes out to a little shopping. This ensemble suit catches her eye. It is made of one of the new suede finish materials and is trimmed with gray astrakhan. The high collar and wide cuffs are especially smart features.

Our Polly might like this coat better. It is also of suede cloth which is the newest of wool fabrics for winter wear. The short, full cape is trimmed with square patches of the fur that is used for the collar. A little felt hat is the thing to wear with it—also with the suit.

As for a youthful looking dress—Polly wonders what do you think of this one? The material is kasha cloth. The yoke and bottom of the sleeves are in brilliant colored crepe de chine to contrast with the darker fabric of the dress and are trimmed with hand done rows of fagotting.

HERE AND THERE

Valentine Suder, 14, Wallington, N. J., shot and killed herself because her father scolded her for remaining outside her home late at night.

An x-ray picture disclosed that Halfback Martin Dietrich of the West Virginia Wesleyan football team suffered a broken leg during the Navy game. He will be out of the lineup for the remainder of the season.

When powder in his pocket ignited from a flare set off by his friends, James Patton, 13, was burned fatally at Olive Hills, Ky.

Twenty-three seniors, who have been on strike in protest against suspension of a football player, have been expelled from Clemson college, South Carolina.

Ruins of a buried city six miles in extent have been uncovered by a state exploring party at Beatty, Nev.

More than 10,000 employees of the Pennsylvania Coal company, Scranton, who went on strike, voted to return to work and let union leaders adjust their grievances.

Mr. Henry L. Farrell, New York City, sports editor of the United Press, returned to New York Monday afternoon after spending the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Farrell, East Second Street. Mr. Farrell came to Xenia after attending the Ohio State-Chicago football game at Columbus Saturday.

THIMBLE CLUB WILL BE ENTERTAINED
The Obedient Thimble Club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Ernest Sanders, of Union Road, Thursday afternoon, October 30, at 2 o'clock.

XENIA H. S. NOTES

At a class meeting of the seniors several weeks ago the following officers were selected to guide the destinies of their class, president Louise Wood; secretary, Pauline Nash; treasurer, Edgar Holton and vice-president, Charles Peters. Miss Marie Weller was chosen class advisor. The Columbia Rose was chosen for the class flower.

The junior class elected the following members for their class officers for the coming year: president, Helen Reutinger; vice-president, Robert Downing; secretary, Barbara Little; treasurer, Jane Hayward. Miss Roxie Channel of the commercial department was selected as class advisor and the Yellow Tea Rose as the class flower.

The Sophomores selected Ivan Burr for their president, Mildred Fudge, vice-president; Thelma Wagner for secretary and Hubert Glass as treasurer. Miss Metcalf was chosen for class advisor.

Mrs. Walter Patton and children, who have been the guests of Mrs. A. B. Tressler, of the Springfield Pike, returned to their home in Washington C. H., Ohio, Monday, after a week's visit.

MRS. MARIA BICKHAM, WIDOW OF EDITOR, IS DEAD AT AGE OF 91

Mrs. Maria Strickland Bickham, 91, widow of Major William Denison Bickham, former editor and owner of The Dayton Journal, died at her home, 117 West Monument Avenue, Dayton, Monday night at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Bickham's death resulted from the infirmities of age. She was active in social, civic and club life until a short time before her last illness.

Mrs. Bickham was born December 22, 1833 at Wilmington, O., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Ellis Strickland. She was graduated from Oakland Female Seminary, Hillsboro, O., in 1852, and married Major Bickham at her home in Wilmington, December 27, 1855. Six sons were born to the union.

After living in Cincinnati, O., eight years, Major and Mrs. Bickham moved to Dayton, where the remainder of her life was spent.

Mrs. Bickham organized a number of clubs and societies in Dayton. As the result of her association with state matters, several county orphan homes were formed culminating in the passing of a law in Ohio providing for the homes under state supervision.

She was appointed by seven governors of Ohio as chairman of the women's board of visitors of the Xenia Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home. In this capacity she was called upon for personal supervision of the Home.

Upon the death of her husband in 1894, Mrs. Bickham became owner of The Dayton Journal. She disposed of her interests in the newspaper several years ago. A sister, three sons and their families are the immediate surviving relatives of Mrs. Bickham.

Funeral services will be held at the late residence, Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Burial will be made in Woodland Cemetery, Dayton.

DIRIGIBLE CAUSES HEAVY PHONE DAY

Passing near Xenia of the big banana shaped dirigible, the gigantic Shenandoah, gave the Ohio Belle Telephone Company here a near record number of calls Saturday morning according to H. W. Cleaver, commercial manager of the company.

As soon as the big dirigible was sighted north of the city, the exchange was flooded with hundreds of calls, Mr. Cleaver reported.

Business had been heavy during the morning hours, many calling to make inquiries as to the time of arrivals of the huge aircraft, and operators were kept busy for perhaps three quarters of an hour answering questions concerning the craft.

Normal conditions were restored in the phone exchange a few minutes after the Shenandoah had passed, it was said.

EVEN FALSE FACES RUN TO STYLE TRIP TO STORES PROVE

There are even styles for false-faces. Just as Milady selects "the latest thing" in hats and dresses, the Hallowe'en reveler picks out unique "styles" in facial camouflage.

The old-time black-faces, clowns, grotesque contortions, and masks are still popular but this year's masquerader has a larger list to select from. For instance there is the Charles Chaplin face, the Katzenjammer Kids, Chinese, Indian, Gypsy and Santa Claus faces.

A local store has even a "cake-eater" mask, the wire frame having the rosy cheeks and waxed mustache of the popular male among flappers of today.

For those who like the more sedate and quaint costumes and masks, there is the mask of an old lady with a bonnet.

Realistic masks of goats, pigs, elephants and bears are being displayed. "Uncle Tom" holds his own among the popular masks.

A devilishly good mask is that of Mephistopheles which ought to be popular with the ladies. "Abie's Irish Rose" is probably responsible for the mask with Jewish contours. A Hindoo mask, with the turban and all is being shown.

PUMP GIVEN AWAY BY LOCAL CONCERN

One of the features of the Elks' Merchant and Trade Show held here last week was the giving away of a complete V-K Water Pump by the A. R. Jones Plumbing Company, Saturday evening.

Quite a crowd of people surrounded the booth late in the evening when Miss E. Hiatt of Dayton, O., was presented with the complete V-K Water Pump.

Crashed Into Pole.

Dayton, O., Oct. 28.—Glen Rohr, 6, son of George F. Rohr, residing near Beavertown, was killed when an automobile driven by his brother and occupied by other members of the family crashed into a telephone pole.

Sunshine Windows!

Washing windows with hard water is a task no one enjoys. A teaspoonful of Climalene softens the water, and reduces the work by half. Prevents rough, chapped hands, too. And how it does make those windows shine!

Sold by all grocers in 12 oz. and 2 lb. packages. Made by The Climlene Co., Canton, O.; also makers of Bowline for Closet Bowls.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

PIMPLES ON FACE AND HANDS

Were Sore and Festered. Cuticura Healed.

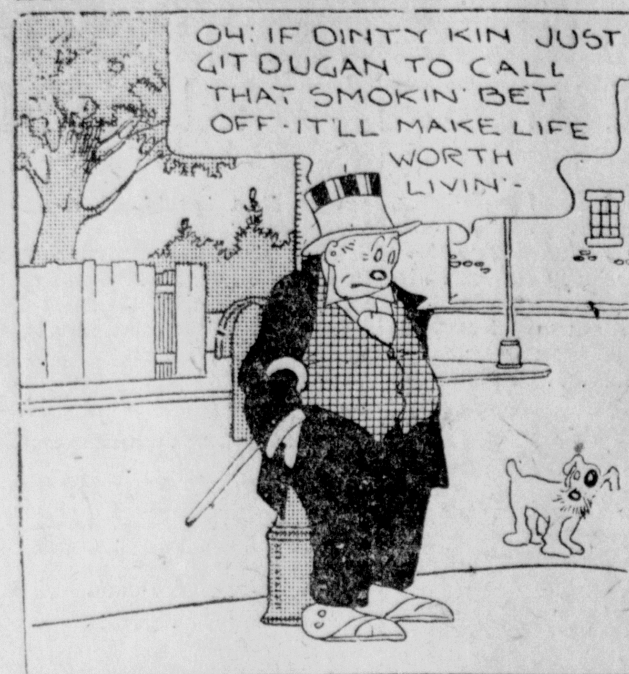

"I worked in a boiler room and the dust caused my face and the backs of my hands to break out in pimples. The pimples were a little larger than a pinhead and disfigured my face. They were quite sore and some of them festered and scaled over."

"I tried several remedies but got no good results. A friend told me about Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I purchased some and after using them about six weeks the pimples disappeared. I was healed." (Signed) Howard Mitchell, Spooner, Wis., March 1, 1924.

Use Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum daily and keep your skin clean and healthy.

Samples Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. H, Malden 64, Mass." Sold everywhere. Beware of cheap imitations. Try our new Shaving Stick.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By GEORGE McMANUS

The Truant Soul

By
Victor Rousseau

She bowed, and he turned to the boy. "You can take Miss Wentworth up," he said. "I'll find a buggy somewhere."

As there was only room for two in the buggy, Joan did not demur to the proposition. She stepped in, the young man holding out his hand to guard her dress from the wheel. Joan glanced at the man with momentary interest. He had the appearance of a gentleman, and the manners of one. There was no hint of either servility or presumption, and yet there was a sort of independence about the man which fitted him admirably. He flicked the horse, and the buggy began to crawl out of the station yard along the single street of a tiny village, straggling uphill. It was a white village, but clusters of shanties a little back among the pines betrayed the presence of the black element. There was a clump of trees, their foliage dense.

The Horse Breaking Into a Short Gallop Near Every Summit.

tered with tobacco and baking powder advertisements, and in front of each stood a gaunt, yellow-faced hillman, chewing and gazing after the buggy with unanimated face.

"This is Lancaster?" asked Joan. "Yes, Miss Wentworth." "The people here look depressed." "There's a good deal of sickness, Miss Wentworth. Hookworm, and what they used to call malaria. But there isn't any malaria here; it's bad diet—salt pork and soda biscuits. And there's pellagra; it's been here for generations, but it wasn't till last year that the medical commission discovered it."

The coachman's knowledge might have been ludicrous in most men of his class, but there was nothing ridiculous in the grave, refined face of the young mountaineer. He must have picked up some knowledge at the institute, thought Joan.

"But it's healthy up in the hills, Miss Wentworth," he added. "This village is Millville. They used to grow cotton in the valley over yonder, but the frost killed the crops three years ago, and the mill fell into ruin. Quite a little water power in that stream."

The buggy ascended a steeper grade, the horse breaking into a short gallop near every summit, and then resuming its leisurely crawl.

"That's the institute, Miss Wentworth," the coachman continued, pointing toward a straggling building on a little plateau. It had the appearance of a large but rather dilapidated farmhouse. "It's three miles by the road," he added, "but less than a mile over the hills."

The horse had stopped to gain breath again. Looking back, Joan saw a white line that crept upward over the rocky slopes almost direct from the station to the building. Half way up was a little speck of black that seemed to move. Joan knew it was Myers' hard hat, his body being hidden from view among the bushes. She shuddered slightly; the man was very repugnant to her.

The horse went on again, the road winding uphill through pastures gay with buttercups and white with little branched asters. It dipped between hedgerows pink with meadowsweet. The sun had set, but its light still glided the hills. The scene was very peaceful. Now the institute seemed to swing out from among the undulations of the mountain flanks immediately in front of them.

The buggy came to a standstill before the long wooden building, which was of unshingled boards and very much the worse for weather. It had not been painted for years, and two windows in one wing were broken. A patch of weedy, unmown lawn extended between what had once been hedges, but were now mere tangles of undergrowth. Nearby was a large inclosure in which were a few chickens, pecking for grains of corn, and a cow at pasture turned her head and gazed at them placidly.

The door opened and a pleasant-looking woman came forward.

"How do you do, Miss Wentworth," she said. "I am the matron, Mrs. Fraser. Doctor Lancaster telegraphed about your coming. I'll show you your room, and your supper will be ready in a few minutes."

Joan descended. The driver, who had leaped to the ground, held his hand over the wheel, but did not offer it to her. Then he re-entered the buggy, and, rather to Joan's surprise, drove off along the road by which they had ascended.

PROBERS HEAR BANKER RELATE STORY OF FUND

Emerson Says He Organized Volunteer Contributors' Committee

New York Man Shows Committee List of Collections Made

Washington, Oct. 28.—Guy D. Emerson, New York banker, chairman of the Republican contributors' committee, was examined by the senate committee investigating campaign funds.

Emerson explained that since July he had been organizing volunteer contributors committees throughout the country to collect funds for the Coolidge-Dawes campaign. In addition to the committee work, he said a campaign had been conducted through the mails. He submitted a statement showing $596,000 collected from professional men, business interests and the various trades. New York's contribution to the Republican campaign fund now probably amounts to $960,000, Emerson said. He said he had no knowledge of any outside organizations collecting Republican funds.

Attorney Weymouth Kirkland of Chicago was given the privilege of appearing for the Republican national committee. He emphasized that he was not present to defend the Republican committee, but to aid the investigation.

Kirkland said: "We have evidence on huge expenditures of the La Follette-Wheeler campaign that do not pass through the regular channels. We have lots of evidence showing coercion on the part of the different labor unions in an effort to tell men how to vote."

Frank P. Walsh of counsel for La Follette protested that the Republican committee had "slept on its rights" and was now coming into the investigation at the eleventh hour, proposing to take up time that should be used in submitting evidence already prepared against it.

Kirkland agreed to furnish a list of witnesses to testify regarding the La Follette campaign.

Attorney Undermyer asked Borah if the additional list of Republican contributors due to have been made Oct. 25 had reached the committee. When Borah replied that it had not, the attorney said it was "highly important that the list be available for examination before election."

Attorney Walsh made the charge that the Republican party is raising a "slush fund" of at least $16,000,000 to elect Coolidge and Dawes. "Our accountants estimated that for the 20 days remaining of the campaign after the 15th the collections will reach $200,000 a day," he asserted, explaining that these sums were in addition to the $2,200,000 collected before Oct. 15 from "bankers, trust magnates and other beneficiaries of the tariff," and $1,500,000 in contributed paid advertisements.

MAYOR IS OPPOSED TO DOUBLE PARADE

Niles, O., Oct. 28.—Knights of the Flaming Circle officials are at odds with Mayor Harvey C. Kistler of this city. They announced the tri-state convention and meeting of the society, scheduled for next Saturday will take place despite a statement by Mayor Kistler that the parade would not be tolerated, as the Ku Klux Klan has preference on this date. Information from circle headquarters here hints that a larger visiting delegation than the 25,000 scheduled klansmen will be in Niles from their different state orders.

Mayor Kistler said that the Knights of the Flaming Circle had not made any request of him for a permit to parade here on Saturday in connection with their convention. He added that if such a request was made he would refuse it, because the Ku Klux Klan had previously requested and been given a permit to parade on that day.

PERCY HOUGHTON, GRIDIRON WONDER MAN, IS DEAD

New York, Oct. 28.—Percy D. Houghton, wonder worker of the gridiron dead from an attack of heart disease as he stood on the brink of his greatest achievement today was mourned by his followers at Columbia University and by his friends on every rival campus throughout the east.

He died in harness from an illness which struck him as he was pulling on his football tugs just before going to the practice field where he had moulded the first representative football team Columbia has had in ten years. His death came less than 48 hours after the Blue and White's decisive victory over Williams, a victory which convinced football followers that he could translate to Columbia the Haughton system made famous at Harvard in his nine years as head coach there.

It was his second season as head coach at Columbia and the improved showing of the Blue and White eleven held promise that the Haughton "will to win" and systematic discipline were producing something Columbia had not known in years—a winning team.

Haughton was 49 years old. His home was in Boston.

A football and baseball star at Harvard as a member of the class of 1889 he returned as coach to his alma mater in 1908 and in nine years brought the Crimson five victories, two ties and two defeats in the all-important games with Yale. Before Haughton, Harvard had gained but three victories to Yale twenty-one. The Haughton system won 71 games and tied five out of 83.

No announcement had been made early today regarding the Columbia-Cornell game Saturday which may be called off. It was not known whether the Columbia team would complete the season's schedule.

MARRIES FOR SEVENTH TIME AT 75

MR. & MRS. CHARLES BABB. Mrs. Babb, of Penacook, N. H., is shown here with her seventh wife, who is Miss Cecelia Stevens, a Boston storekeeper. The wedding was performed in the railway station at Boscawen, N. H., because Babb's friend, the station master, is also town clerk, authorized to officiate at wedding ceremonies.

ARREST MAIL ROBBER

GLASSCOCK AND WIFE CAPTURED FOR BIG THEFT

Pair Confess Part In $2,000,000-Roundout Theft Last June

Nabbed at Battle Creek Where They Were Accepted in Society

Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 28.—Brent Glasscock, alias Brent Howard, and his wife, Avis, who have been popular members of the social set at the Battle Creek sanitarium since their arrival here three weeks ago, are held today by federal officials, the man as the last of the six principals in the Roundout, Illinois, $2,000,000 mail robbery of June 12, and the woman as a conspirator sharing his guilt.

The Glasscocks were arrested last night in the fashionable west end home where they had taken a suite when Glasscock started a course of stomach treatments at the sanitarium on their arrival here. Acting on a tip from postoffice inspectors, police visited the house, gained entrance through subterfuge, and confronted the couple in their suite.

When shown the postoffice circulars advertising a reward for their arrest, Glasscock and his wife surrendered without resistance, admitted their identity, according to police.

Mrs. Glasscock had a sumptuous wardrobe, appraised by a police at $10,000 in the suite. She was wearing at least $25,000 worth of gems and had in her possession about $4,000 in currency and a sack of unset diamonds as large as both fists. Its value has not been estimated.

Since returning to Battle Creek, the couple had entered into social affairs of the city, gaining entrance through the coterie at the sanitarium, where foregather social leaders from many cities, and that they had returned only recently from a honeymoon in Canada, hunting.

Glasscock is about 40 and his wife about 35.

Glasscock has a long criminal record, according to postal inspectors who arrived here early today to take the prisoners to Chicago. He has been tried twice for murder, but has been beaten both charges.

His arrest completes the round up of suspects in connection with the daring robbery of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul train last June, in which $2,000,000 was taken by the bandits near Roundout, Illinois.

The other five are in cells in Chicago, in default of $100,000 bail each.

DEATH OF FATHER WILL NOT OPEN GATES OF JOLIET FOR RICHARD LOEB TO GO TO FUNERAL

Chicago, Oct. 28.—Possibility that the death of his father, Albert H. Loeb might open the gates of Joliet state penitentiary for a few brief hours, before Richard A. Loeb, slayer of Robert Franks, appeared remote here today as preparations for simple private funeral services for the capitalist were being made. News of Loeb's death was brought to the penitentiary shortly before midnight last night. Warden Whitman communicated his sympathy to members of the Loeb family and advised them that, at their request and with Governor Small's permission, Richard would be permitted freedom under guard to attend the last rites for his father. Today, however, members of the family indicated that no such request would be made. The chief reason for this, it was said, was a realization of the notoriety and distasteful publicity which would accompany Richard's attendance.

Definite plans for the funeral had not been completed today, but it was expected the services would be strictly private, only close friends and immediate members of the family being permitted to attend.

Loeb's death did not come as a surprise to members of his family or his friends. He had been in precarious health for two years and this condition had been augmented several months ago by another ailment diagnosed as angina pectoris.

Three days before his son confessed the kidnapping and slaying of Robert Franks, Loeb was taken seriously ill and was confined to his bed. He was not advised of the confession for several days. The last time he saw his son was when Richard came into his bedroom to advise him that he "was going down town with a policeman."

"I'm going down town with a policeman for a little while, Dad," he told his parent. "They want to question me about this Franks case. I'll be back in two or three hours."

He never came back and his father never saw him again.

During the trying days of his son's trial, the father was recuperating at his Charlevoix Michigan estate and he gained strength so rapidly there that he returned to town shortly after the verdict.

Here, however, his old ailment returned and he rapidly became worse. A week ago attending physicians knew that the end was not far distant.

Today members of the family and physicians who attended Loeb, denied that his son's connection with the Franks case had hastened Loeb's death.

Loeb was born in Rockford, Ills., February 18, 1868.

EXPECT RECORD VOTE AT POLLS NEXT TUESDAY

Heavy Registration Leads To Belief Balloting Will Be Large

Washington, Oct. 28.—A record vote at the polls next Tuesday is predicted by political leaders here. Registration has been heavy in the cities and interest in the campaign has been enlivened in the country districts.

The National League of Women voters has been engaged in a nationwide campaign to get out the vote. The drive by the organization has helped to swell the total registration, which shows an increase nearly everywhere over that of 1920, and in some cases a very great increase, according to a statement giving figures of the gains.

Large cities and small have increased numbers of voters this year. In New York city 1,494,130 are qualified to vote this year, a gain of 8.7 per cent over 1920. The increase in Chicago is 13 per cent, with 1,068,190 qualified to cast ballots for president there.

William M. Butler, chairman of the Republican national committee, opened the final week of the political campaign with a statement expressing confidence in the success of the Coolidge-Dawes ticket at the election Nov. 4. Farmers and working men, Butler asserted, will support the Republican ticket, now so rapidly improving, will not be disturbed.

Senator La Follette issued a statement predicting an independent victory. He declared analysis of increased registration figures in various sections showed that the new registrations have been heaviest in the wards and precincts where his support is strongest.

Robert W. Wooley, director of publicity for the Democratic national committee, in a letter to Postmaster General New attacked New's charges of graft in the Wilson administration and charged that a high official in the Republican administration lost $180,000 speculating in Mexican Seaboard, Bethlehem Steel and Pure Oil.

La Follette headquarters in a statement reiterated that Mrs. Mabel Willebrandt of the department of justice is "withholding the truth from the public in prohibition enforcement matters in order to shield the Republican party."

Fifty-three eastern men and women, prominent in the 1912 progressive movement, in a statement urged the members of their party to vote for Coolidge.

Teachers' Honor Guests.

Columbus, Oct. 28.—Speakers for the Central Ohio Teachers' association, to be held Nov. 7 and 8 in Columbus, will be honor guests on the opening evening at a dinner arranged by the Columbus Teachers' federation. One representative from each school will be present. Honor guests will be Dallas Lore Sharp, Boston university; William Mather Lewis, president of George Washington Memorial university; Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, author; Albert S. Cook, state superintendent of schools of Maryland; Dr. William McAndrew, superintendent of Chicago schools; and Charles E. Watkins, head of the welfare department of the General Motors association, Muncie, Ind.

Receives Life Sentences.

Cleveland, Oct. 28.—Mrs. Virginia Kirk, 30, was sentenced to Marysville reformatory for life after a jury had found her guilty of shooting to wound. She shot Ernest Shreve, 35, after quarreling about an automobile repair bill he claimed her husband owed him, evidence showed.

To Lay Cornerstone.

Springfield, O., Oct. 28.—Four thousand Masons are expected to attend the cornerstone laying of the new $750,000 temple here. Howard Dwight Smith, architect, and Campbell Voorhees, past grand master, will take part in the ceremonies. A parade of the Masonic bodies will precede the ceremonies.

Infant Drowns.

Athens, O., Oct. 28.—Betty Jane McCray, 15 months, drowned in a lard can in the yard while her mother was washing for a neighbor.

She divorced him later, and now is to marry Baron Eugene Rothschild, member of the famous family of financiers.

COMPANION IN SLAYING OF CLEVELAND OFFICER IS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Joe Prymas, Accomplice of Holt in Murder of Patrolman Michael Hohnel, Is Arrested After Attempt To Commit Suicide.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 28.—Following an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide when he felt the police ring which had been laid about his hiding place growing nearer and escape cut off, Joe Prymas, sought as the actual slayer of Patrolman Michael Hohnel, Shaker Heights police officer, was arrested by Cleveland police today, and was immediately taken to the detective bureau, where he was given a severe grilling.

Prymas, who earlier in the day, was believed to have drowned himself in the river at Lorain, when accosted by a police officer there, attempted to take his own life in a basement of a house in East Fifty Ninth Street. Dr. J. E. Bryant, a physician, who was called, recognized Prymas from his printed pictures and summoned police.

slight and officers took him to headquarters for grilling.

"We've got the man," said Chief of Police Jacob Graul grimly.

"Before tonight, we'll have complete confessions, and it won't be long after that before indictments are returned and trials held."

Albert Holt, "red head," caught by Wheeling police Sunday, after a thrilling manhunt, had made confession, police say, today, although they believe that he is still holding something back.

Warrants charging murder have already been issued against both Prymas and Holt.

Hohnel, a police officer in Shaker Heights, an exclusive residential suburb, was shot and fatally wounded in a stolen car after he had arrested two men for careless driving. He jumped in their car to take them to police station. Shortly afterwards, fatally wounded, he was found in an isolated spot, a wound in his abdomen. He died a few days later.

Rewards totalling $6,000 have been offered for the arrest and conviction of his slayers.

Holt and Prymas will be indicted, Prosecutor Edward C. Stanton said today under an Ohio law, making the killing of a policeman in the discharge of duty, murder in the first degree, whether or not premeditation is proved.

Cleveland, Oct. 28.—Albert Holt had confessed to police that he was in the automobile in which Patrolman Michael Hohnel of Shaker Heights was fatally shot and then thrown from the car on the night of Oct. 17. County Prosecutor Stanton announced. Holt was captured near Wheeling, W. Va., after an exciting 30-mile chase.

Holt implicated Joseph Prymas in his confession, saying the latter fired the fatal shot. Holt broke down when he was confronted with his woman companion in his flight, Mrs. Margaret Horton, and was told of her confession that he had told her of his part in the shooting. "I drove the car and Joe was in the back seat with the officer," police said Holt told them. "Joe and the policeman got into an argument about our arrest for not stopping. The gun went off. Joe said it was accidental. I didn't have anything to do with the shooting." A warrant charging first degree murder was issued for Prymas.

Lutherans Approve "Just Wars" at Meet Staged in Chicago

Declare Christians May Participate In Wars of That Nature

Chicago, Oct. 28.—"Just wars" received the approval of the United Lutheran Church in America in convention here.

A resolution was adopted declaring that Christians should work for the promotion of international good will, but "may engage in just wars."

The convention voted down a substitute submitted by the ministerium of Pennsylvania calling upon the leaders of the nations "to resist political, economic and commercial incitements to war," and to "suppress militarism and national selfishness."

Following adoption of the "just war" resolution, a number of delegates signed a statement dissenting from the resolution on the ground of its alleged "emphasis of the right of war." Dr. J. A. Haas, president of Muhlenberg college, Allentown, Pa., one of the dissenting group, said: "The fundamental need today is not to declare that there are just wars, but to fight against the fundamental evils that cause war."

Dr. E. P. Phattecher of Reading, Pa., in defending the war stand resolution, said that the committee had considered three viewpoints, those of extreme pacifists, extreme militarists and a more moderate one, and had given all careful consideration. Dr. Paul Scherr of Trinity Lutheran church of New York city urged that the resolution be referred back, saying that the committee had placed emphasis in the wrong place, and that the "better way of love" should be emphasized. Dr. E. M. Deik of Philadelphia, another of those in favor of outlawing all war, said: "I should hate to find the church lagging behind statesmen of America and other countries. Senator Borah will in the coming congress, present a bill to outlaw war." Dr. L. S. Keyser of Hama Divinity school, Springfield, O., vigorously defended the resolution, declaring that if the country were invaded he would enlist.

A resolution protesting against "suggestive and indecent moving pictures," and providing for surveys of moving pictures in various centers, to be presented to governors of states where made, was adopted unanimously.

General Haldeman Dead.

Louisville, Oct. 28.—General William B. Haldeman, commander in chief of the Confederate Veterans, died at a hospital, where he was taken after being stricken while watching the races. General Haldeman was 78 years old and at one time was part owner of the Courier-Journal and Louisville Times.

DAMAGES AWARDED MOTHER WHOSE SON LOST LIFE AT SEA

New York, Oct. 28.—In federal district court here a verdict for $20,000 damages was awarded Mrs. Adelaide C. Nelson of Philadelphia for the death of her son, Lawrence, aged 20, a member of the crew of the steamship Frederick, which sank in mid-Atlantic in January, 1916, while en route from this port to Archangel with a cargo of war munitions. The jury which returned the verdict held that the Frederick's owners, Charles W. Morse, his son, Benjamin, and Captain Mark L. Gilbert, had been guilty of conspiracy in sending the vessel to sea with the knowledge that she was unseaworthy. The 30 members of the crew were said they would appeal the verdict to the United States circuit court of appeals.

The Frederick, witness testified, was considered so unseaworthy by engineers who had brought her here from Baltimore that they later refused to put to sea in her.

GIRL WHO CLUBBED FATHER TO DEATH IS UNDER ARREST

Moravia, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Suzanna Riley, 19, alleged slayer of her father, Charles Riley, 60, farmer, is being held here for observation. District Attorney Ben Kenyon ordered the girl placed under arrest technically on an open charge. She will be held at the hospital for several days for observation of her mental condition. Dr. Leslie Snow, Cuyahoga county jail physician, who examined the girl, said she was suffering from mental disorders.

Suzanna, it is charged, clubbed her father to death. After refusing to let her take a position in Auburn, Riley retired to a couch. The girl got an iron bar, and while her father slept, beat him to death. The killing was discovered by another daughter of the victim, Miss Myrtle Riley, 21, who found Suzanna kneeling beside the bloody form of her father.

EXPECT DECISION ON LEGALITY OF INCOME PUBLICATION SOON

Washington, Oct. 28.—In a decision as to the legality of newspapers publishing income tax returns probably will be forthcoming in about 24 hours, it was learned at the department of justice today.

Experts of the department have submitted an opinion to the attorney general, but he was able to give it only a brief study before going to cabinet meeting at the White House.

It was considered probable that the question would occupy some discussion in the cabinet session.

OHIOAN TELLS OF LA FOLLETTE PLOT TO GATHER MONEY

Columbus, O., Oct. 28.—In a letter to Senator William E. Borah, chairman of the senate committee investigating campaign funds, Chairman Harry C. Arnold, Franklin county Republican executive committee, today asserted that he was informed of an alleged attempt of the LaFollette-Wheeler headquarters at Chicago to raise funds by making every druggist in the United States a distributor of the LaFollette-Wheeler campaign buttons offering the druggist 25 per cent of the sale price of his buttons.

The buttons are being sold at from 25 cents to a dollar, according to Arnold.

"I note that the committee claims they only expect to use about $400,000 in their national campaign," the letter states.

"It is easy to compute that with more than 45,000 druggists in the country at only $10 dollars per druggist the committee will have paid out $90,000 in commissions and still have left $360,000 from this one source."

Arnold submitted the foregoing information together with a card of buttons and a letter said to have been received by a local druggist, for use in the senate investigation.

BRITISH ELECTION CAMPAIGN WINDING UP IN BITTERNESS

London, Oct. 28.—The election campaign, which will terminate at the polls tomorrow, is winding up in a storm of hatred.

The Tory press today was unanimous in its denunciation of Premier MacDonald, while the Daily Herald, the labor organization, continues its "exposure" of what it terms "the machinations of a plot by the press of England."

The real truth of the "soviet plot note" which M. Zinovieff, its supposed signer denounces as a forgery, will not be known until after the election as there is not sufficient time to determine the truth of the charges made by the president of the Communist Internationale.

Premier MacDonald has summoned Gregory, of the foreign office, to Wales, directing that he bring the documents in the case with him.

Disorders continue to mark the closing hours of the campaign. Viscount Curzon was mobbed, his car damaged and two companions knocked out. Lord Beaverbrook was forced to call for a police guard in leaving a meeting broken up by rioters at Milend and Lloyd George was met with a chorus of "boos" when he tried to speak at Camberwell.

Predictions as to the outcome tomorrow were still difficult to make today, but it seems fairly certain the Tories will gain in seats and may be able to form the next government, with labor as their chief opponents.

Labor Attacks Robinson.

Columbus, Oct. 28.—The Columbus Federation of Labor issued a statement calling for the defeat of Supreme Court Judge Robinson, Republican candidate for re-election, because of his stand in the East Ohio Gas company's case decision, which, it is claimed, gave the gas companies control in disputes with the public over rates. The resolution also condemns Judge Robinson because of his concurrence in the Davis ripper bill, denying a referendum.

FINANCIAL REPORT SHOWS STAR COURSE EARNS SCHOOL MONEY

A complete financial statement of last year's public school lyceum course has been made public.

The report follows: total receipts from sale of season tickets, single admission tickets and advertising, $1,152.22; disbursements: Coit-Alber Lyceum Bureau for Rainbow orchestra, $250.00; for Frederick Ward, $150.00; for Vivian Players, $200.00; May M. Harper, prize to Junior High for selling tickets, $3.00; Eckler Printing Co., printing, $19.50; Buckeye Press, printing, $3.75 and $2.50; Coit-Alber Lyceum Bureau for Mary Adel Hays Opera Singers, $85.00; for Robert Parker Miles, $60.00; Buckeye Press, printing, $4.00; Twin City Scenic Co., scenery for auditorium stage, $310.00; Disbursements total $1,092.75 leaving a balance on hand at Commercial Savings Bank of $59.47.

The above statement can be verified with the books at the board of education office or at the Commercial and Savings Bank.

The main object in giving a lyceum course under the auspices of the school is to provide the school and the public with high-class lectures and musical numbers, it is announced. Making money is a secondary matter. If any profit is made this year it will be used in providing some permanent and valuable adjunct to the school.

The school board is again guaranteeing satisfactory seats to all adult season ticket holders this year. Last year some difficulty was experienced in doing this because the school officials were inexperienced in handling this feature in the new auditorium. The mistakes of last year will be corrected just as far as possible this year, it is said.

"If at first you don't succeed, try, try again," is the motto of the Central High school football team, and the aggregation is putting in some stiff practice sessions this week in preparation for the Friday game with Troy High School at Cox Memorial Athletic Field.

Statistics show that Troy's team this year is something of a puzzle. After holding Roosevelt High School, of Dayton, to a 7 to 6 score in its opening game of the season, Troy has been beaten by wide margins at the hands of Piqua and Greenville but later returned to something like midseason form and walloped Tippecanoe City by a 6 to 0 margin.

Roosevelt beat Springfield High several weeks ago, by a score of 26 to 7, and the law of averages would say that Xenia high which was humbled by Springfield by the score of 27 to 6 last Saturday would lose to Troy by a score of 39 to 0.

On the other hand, Greenville is said to have beaten Troy about 60 to 0 recently, but only succeeded in licking Xenia by a 27 to 0 count, which would mean that Xenia should triumph over Troy by a score of 33 to 0.

Xenia is not going by averages however, and with about four stiff practice sessions before it, should be in the best of trim when Troy is met, barring its old jim, injuries.

There was only one casualty, of a serious nature in the Springfield game. Wascely, a guard, getting his nose broken, while the remainder of the team came out of the game in fine shape.

Xenia's eleven is also something of a puzzle this year, as figures show that the local team has played each opposing eleven about even in the matter of first downs, passes completed and in other ways, but the defense seems to crack at critical points and the offensive is sadly lacking in a scoring punch when it is needed.

With four more teams yet to be faced this year, Central has a chance to come out about even on the schedule providing the remainder of the games are chalked up on the winning side of the ledger and this feat is not an impossibility.

Troy and Roosevelt are to be played at Cox Memorial Field on successive weeks, while the Washington C. H. game on Thanksgiving day is to be played at Washington and the Wilmington game a week previous is to be played there.

ELEAZER

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Smith and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Beal.

The Rev. Mr. Horney of Sharonville Ohio, called on Mrs. Mary Hartsook Monday. The Rev. Mr. Horney was pastor of the Eleazer Circuit twenty-one years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Jones and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Jones Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neff and daughter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Neff.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bennington of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Ary and family of New Burlington and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bennington of Morrow, O., enjoyed a family dinner at their parents home, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Bennington, Sunday.

Miss Ruth Chitty attended a teachers' meeting at Cincinnati Saturday.

Prisoner Escapes.

St. Clairsville, O., Oct. 23.—Roy Stone, 27, of Holloway, escaped from a deputy sheriff, who was taking him and two other prisoners to the Belmont county jail following a preliminary hearing on a charge of stealing auto accessories.

RECIPES WE HAVE TESTED

The Gazette-Republican has a number of home tried recipes handed in by women of the city at the time of the Gazette-Republican Home Makers Cooking School recently conducted in this city. These recipes will be published each day under the above heading until all of the recipes presented at that time have been used. Women of the city and county are invited to send in their favorite recipes and these will be published for the benefit of the other women of the community. If sufficient interest is manifested in the new department it will be continued indefinitely.

MASCOTTES MAY BE OPPONENTS OF THE IMPERIALS SUNDAY

The attraction at Washington Park this Sunday will in all probability be the Dayton Mascottes according to Manager Wones of the Imperials who will go to Dayton Tuesday night to confer with Norman Witte, Manager of the Mascottes.

Should Manager Wones line up the Mascottes the fans can be sure of seeing a team that has been together for five seasons or more and a team that is good. The Mascottes were southern Ohio football champs one year while at another time they were 160 pound champs of Dayton. Manager Witte has a real team and such stars as Rudolph, former Osborn Indian half.

Leis, Fisher, and Huber are with the Dayton grid outfit. Huber is the lad who really beat the East Side A. C. as he scored three touchdowns against the Rickman tribe.

The locals in preparation for the game will hold a stiff signal drill Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock and all are requested to be on hand. The locals will no doubt be outweighed by Witte's bunch but they are confident they can put up a strenuous game and defeat the Gem City gridders.

THE WORST IS YET TO COME—

Modish Mitzi—Polly Has a Birthday; Nobody's to Know It.

By Jay V. Jay

It's not that Polly is old. No, she's quite decidedly young. But it isn't enough to be young, one must also look it! That's why Polly is keeping her age a dark secret—she's firmly determined that no one will ever say how young she looks for her age because no one ever is going to know her age.

But Polly might like this coat better. It is also of suede cloth which is the newest of wool fabrics for winter wear. The short, full cape is trimmed with square patches of the fur that is used for the collar. A little felt hat is the thing to wear with it—also with the suit.

And being young is so much a matter of clothes that Polly goes out to a little shopping. This ensemble suit catches her eye. It is made of one of the new suede finish materials and is trimmed with gray astrakan. The high collar and wide cuffs are especially smart features.

As for a youthful looking dress—Polly wonders what do you think of this one? The material is kasha cloth. The yoke and bottom of the sleeves are in brilliant colored crepe de chine to contrast with the darker fabric of the dress and are trimmed with hand done rova of faggetting.

HERE AND THERE

Valentine Suder, 14, Wallington, N. J., shot and killed herself because her father scolded her for remaining outside her home late at night.

An x-ray picture disclosed that Halfback Martin Dietrich of the West Virginia Wesleyan football team suffered a broken leg during the Navy game. He will be out of the lineup for the remainder of the season.

When powder in his pocket ignited from a flare set off by his friends, James Patton, 13, was burned fatally at Olive Hills, Ky.

Twenty-three seniors, who have been on strike in protest against suspension of a football player, have been expelled from Clemson college, South Carolina.

Ruins of a buried city six miles in extent have been uncovered by a state exploring party at Beatty, Nev.

More than 10,000 employees of the Pennsylvania Coal company, Scranton, who went on strike, voted to return to work and let union leaders adjust their grievances.

Mr. Henry L. Farrell, New York City, sports editor of the United Press, returned to New York Monday afternoon after spending the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Farrell, East Second Street. Mr. Farrell came to Xenia after attending the Ohio State-Chicago football game at Columbus Saturday.

THIMBLE CLUB WILL BE ENTERTAINED

The Obedient Thimble Club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Ernest Sanders, of Union Road, Thursday afternoon, October 30, at 2 o'clock.

XENIA H. S. NOTES

At a class meeting of the seniors several weeks ago the following officers were selected to guide the destinies of their class, president Louise Wood; secretary, Pauline Nash; treasurer, Edgar Holton and vice-president Charles Peters. Though arm was broken and he was badly burned in blast aboard the U. S. S. Trenton off the Virginia Capes, Lieut. John A. Sedgewick (above, in hospital) saved two of comrades from certain death.

Wanted

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

Mrs. Abraham Levy (above), alias Rose Pelrose, was found in Jersey City, N. J., and held for Boston, Mass., police, where four years ago she was member of gang charged with working badger game on Victor H. Searles, a Boston millionaire. Mrs. Levy claims she didn't get a cent of the $60,000 Searles blackmailing.

MRS. MARIA BICKHAM, WIDOW OF EDITOR, IS DEAD AT AGE OF 91

Mrs. Maria Strickle Bickham, 91, widow of Major William Denison Bickham, former editor and owner of The Dayton Journal, died at her home, 117 West Monument Avenue, Dayton, Monday night at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Bickham's death resulted from the infirmities of age. She was active in social, civic and club life until a short time before her last illness.

Mrs. Bickham was born December 22, 1833 at Wilmington, O., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Ellis Strickle. She was graduated from Oakland Female Seminary, Hillsboro, O., in 1852, and married Major Bickham at her home in Wilmington, December 27, 1855. Six sons were born to the union.

After living in Cincinnati, O., eight years, Major and Mrs. Bickham moved to Dayton, where the remainder of her life was spent.

Mrs. Bickham organized a number of clubs and societies in Dayton. As the result of her association with state matters, several county orphan's homes were formed culminating in the passing of a law in Ohio providing for the homes under state supervision.

She was appointed by seven governors of Ohio as chairman of the women's board of visitors of the Xenia Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan's Home. In this capacity she was called upon for personal supervision of the Home.

Upon the death of her husband in 1894, Mrs. Bickham became owner of The Dayton Journal. She disposed of her interests in the newspaper several years ago. A sister, three sons and their families are the immediate surviving relatives of Mrs. Bickham.

Funeral services will be held at the late residence, Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Burial will be made in Woodland Cemetery, Dayton.

DIRIGIBLE CAUSES HEAVY PHONE DAY

Passing near Xenia of the big banana shaped dirigible, the gigantic Shenandoah, gave the Ohio Belle Telephone Company here a near record number of calls Saturday morning according to H. W. Cleaver, commercial manager of the company.

As soon as the big dirigible was sighted north of the city, the exchange was flooded with hundreds of calls, Mr. Cleaver reported.

Business had been heavy during the morning hours, many calling to make inquiries as to the time of arrivals of the huge aircraft, and operators were kept busy for perhaps three quarters of an hour answering questions concerning the craft.

Normal conditions were restored in the phone exchange a few minutes after the Shenandoah had passed, it was said.

INTEREST HIGH IN WRESTLING MATCH

Local wrestling fans are anticipating one of the best wrestling shows ever staged by Xenia Aerie of Eagles, Wednesday night at the Eagles' Hall when three mat bouts of high calibre are scheduled.

Two wrestlers of well known skill, both former Xenians, are scheduled to hook up in the main go. Tom Pappas, of Springfield, and Bill Brooks, of Wilmington, are the two heavies, and their match is booked to go two falls out of three.

In the semi-final match, George Gatsoff, of Massillon and Harry Kilgus, of Norfolk, will furnish the entertainment. This bout should be as interesting as the main go as their previous match staged recently under the auspices of the Eagles' could hardly have been rivaled in interest.

Both boys are welterweights, and battle at 145 pounds. Gatsoff is a claimant for the welterweight championship of the state.

The preliminary bout of one fall, between "Scoop" Gordon, of this city and Kid Black, of Springfield, should also be a thriller, as Gordon is making his debut in the mat game and Black is an experienced mat artist. The boys wrestle at about 120 pounds.

The bouts will start promptly at 8:15 o'clock, Wednesday evening with the usual popular prices prevailing.

WITTENBERG TILT WITH WESLEYAN TO FEATURE SATURDAY

Springfield, O., Oct. 28.—Belchly, Rohleder and Churchman are three Wittenberg varsity regulars who have hung high their names in football history of the Lutheran school.

At least two of them will figure in the play against Wesleyan in the Wittenberg stadium, Nov. 1. Belchly at quarter has been jolly well called a "running fool" by the ball.

He must be watched at all periods of the game. Last year he scored a touchdown from kickoff against Mt. Union doing a 98-yd run through the visiting team. Through Ohio University's team this year he did an 87-yd run. In the recent game with St. Xavier, he ran an accumulated 100 yards in the fourth quarter alone, getting two touchdowns for his trouble.

Rohleder, crippled since the St. Xavier fun-fest for Lutheran spectators, may not see the line-up for the Wesleyan game. In three of the four seasons, he got a kick from the field, enough to win the Ohio U game here recently. Against Denison he repeated.

Churchman, heavy plunger, and among first ten scorers in the Ohio Conference in 1923 is promising to build up a fat record against the weaker teams yet remaining on schedule. He and Rohleder come from Bryan, O., and for prowess and size are highly respected in the Ohio conference.

EAST WINS OVER WILBERFORCE ACADEMY BY FORFEIT ROUTE AFTER LEADING MOST OF GAME VILLAGE SENDS SONS TO PROMINENCE

Was it a touchback a safety or a touchdown?

That was the question, which lay to a heated dispute Monday afternoon at Cox Memorial Athletic Field, between the football teams of East High School and Wilberforce Academy and the officials, and later caused the game to be forfeited to East High by a score of 1 to 0 with only four minutes to play and East High leading 22 to 0 in the fourth quarter.

The dispute arose near the end of the final period when a Wilberforce back, plunged over the East goal line, apparently for a touchdown, but while yet in mid air, fumbled the ball, which rolled over the line, and was covered by J. Ware, of East, for a safety. In the event of a touchback, the ball would be put in play by East on its twenty-yard line, while if it was a safety the ball would be played by East from its thirty yard line and Wilberforce would be given two points.

Wilberforce claimed that its back had passed over the goal line in mid air and as a result had lawfully earned a touchdown.

However Referee Geyer, of this city had not blown his whistle declaring the ball dead, and the ball was fumbled at this point. There was some question as to whether the Wilberforce player had gone over the line and as the field was almost shrouded in darkness, the referee would have had to be right on top of the play to have judged accurately.

According to rule 6, Section 14, in Spaulding's Official Football Guide, which declares that a touchdown is only made when the ball, lawfully in possession of a player, is declared dead by the referee, any part of it being on, above, or behind the opponents' goal line, the play could not have been declared a touchdown.

In the same section, however, it declares that the referee shall immediately blow his whistle and declare that a touchdown has been made as soon as the ball has been carried across the goal line, or upon the legal completion of a forward pass in the end zone.

The difficulty in correctly judging the play may be attributed to darkness. Both teams were about even in the matter of defensive strength, and neither eleven could score until the second quarter, as the ball seemed up and down the field with neither team threatening.

In the latter part of the second period, a Wilberforce back attempted a place kick, which was blocked by East and Left Guard Jones, for East, snatched up the ball on the run, and with a clear field ahead of him, ran sixty-three yards for a touchdown. Try for goal after touchdown was blocked.

The Ware brothers, for East, three in number, were the whole works for the Xenia aggregation, while Cantey, the big back for the Academy boys was the principal thorn in the side of the local team.

American Marines in Pekin.

Shanghai, China, Oct. 28.—The American cruiser Huron landed 150 American marines at Taku. The marines left at once for Pekin.

No Reply to Divine Charge.

Washington, Oct. 28.—No reply has been made at the white house to the charge made by Joseph J. Devine, a lawyer and war veteran of Bridgeport, Conn., that President Coolidge, while vice president, required a fee of $250 for delivering a patriotic address to ex-soldiers at Bridgeport.

Devine made his charge in a speech at Jersey City, N. J. He was a lieutenant in the Second division and was wounded at Belleau Wood, in France.

EVEN FALSE FACES RUN TO STYLE TRIP TO STORES PROVE

There are even styles for false-faces. Just as Milady selects "the latest thing" in hats and dresses, the Halloween reveler picks out unique "styles" in facial camouflage.

The old-time black-faces, clowns, grotesque contortions, and masks are still popular but this year's masquerader has a larger list to select from. For instance there is the Charles Chaplin face, the Katzenjammer Kids, Chinese, Indian, Gypsy and Santa Claus faces.

A local store has even a "cake-eater" mask, the wire frame having the rosy cheeks and waxed mustache of the popular male among flappers of today.

For those who like the more sedate and quaint costumes and masks, there is the mask of an old lady with a bonnet.

Realistic masks of goats, pigs, elephants and bears are being displayed. "Uncle Tom" holds his own among the popular masks.

A devilish good mask is that of Mephistopheles which ought to be popular with the ladies. "Abie's Irish Rose" is probably responsible for the mask with Jewish contours. A Hindoo mask, with the turban and all is being shown.

Scores of noise-making devices are to be had in local shops. Wigs of every hue and design are on sale. Clever favors are being displayed by merchants and the approach of All Hallowed Eve is evident throughout the city.

PUMP GIVEN AWAY BY LOCAL CONCERN

One of the features of the Elks' Merchant and Trade Show held here last week was the giving away of a complete V-K Water Pump by the A. R. Jones Plumbing Company, Saturday evening.

Quite a crowd of people surrounded the booth late in the evening when Miss E. Hine of Dayton, O., was presented with the complete V-K Water Pump.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

PIMPLES ON FACE AND HANDS

Were Sore and Festered.
Cuticura Healed.

"I worked in a boiler room and the dust caused my face and the backs of my hands to break out in pimples. The pimples were a little larger than a pinhead and disfigured my face. They were quite sore and some of them festered and scaled over."

"I tried several remedies but got no good results. A friend told me about Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I purchased some and after using them about six weeks the pimples disappeared. I was healed."

(Signed) Howard Mitchell, Spooner, Wis., March 1, 1924.

Use Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum daily and keep your skin clean and healthy.

Samples Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. 9, Malden, Mass." Sold every where. Sample Size, Ointment 25c and 50c, Talcum 10c.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By GEORGE McMANUS

The Truant Soul

By
Victor Rousseau

She bowed, and he turned to the boy. "You can take Miss Wentworth up," he said. "I'll find a buggy somewhere."

As there was only room for two in the buggy, Joan did not demur to the proposition. She stepped in, the young man holding out his hand to guard her dress from the wheel. Joan glanced at the man with momentary interest. He had the appearance of a gentleman, and the manners of one. There was no hint of either servility or presumption, and yet there was a sort of independence about the man which fitted him admirably. He flicked the horse, and the buggy began to crawl out of the station yard along the single street of a tiny village, straggling uphill. It was a white village, but clusters of shanties a little back among the pines betrayed the presence of the black element. There was a store or two, their fronts white.

have been ludicrous in most men of his class, but there was nothing ridiculous in the grave, refined face of the young mountaineer. He must have picked up some knowledge at the institute, thought Joan.

"But it's healthy up in the hills, Miss Wentworth," he added. "This village is Millville. They used to grow cotton in the valley over yonder, but the frost killed the crops three years ago, and the mill fell into ruin. Quite a little water power in that stream."

The buggy ascended a steeper grade, the horse breaking into a short gallop near every summit, and then resuming its leisurely crawl.

"That's the institute, Miss Wentworth," the coachman continued, pointing toward a straggling building on a little plateau. It had the appearance of a large but rather dilapidated farmhouse. "It's three miles by the road," he added, "but less than a mile over the hills."

The horse had stopped to gain breath again. Looking back, Joan saw a white line that crept upward over the rocky slopes almost direct from the station to the building. Half way up was a little speck of black that seemed to move. Joan knew it was Myers' hard hat, his body being hidden from view among the bushes. She shuddered slightly; the man was very repugnant to her.

The horse went on again, the road winding uphill through pastures gay with buttercups and white with little branched asters. It dipped between hedgerows pink with meadowsweet. The sun had set, but its light still gilded the hills. The scene was very peaceful. Now the institute seemed to swing out from among the undulations of the mountain flanks immediately in front of them.

The buggy came to a standstill before the long wooden building, which was of unshingled boards and very much the worse for weather. It had not been painted for years, and two windows in one wing were broken. A patch of weedy, unmown lawn extended between what had once been hedges, but were now mere tangles of undergrowth. Nearby was a large inclosure in which were a few chickens, picking for grains of corn, and a cow at pasture turned her head and gazed at them placidly.

The door opened and a pleasant-looking woman came forward. "How do you do, Miss Wentworth," she said. "I am the matron, Mrs. Fraser. Doctor Lancaster telegraphed about your coming. I'll show you your room, and your supper will be ready in a few minutes."

Joan descended. The driver, who had leaped to the ground, held his hand over the wheel, but did not offer it to her. Then he re-entered the buggy, and, rather to Joan's surprise, drove off along the road by which they had ascended.

tered with tobacco and baking powder advertisements, and in front of each stood a gaunt, yellow-faced hillman, chewing and gazing after the buggy with unanimated face.

"This is Lancaster?" asked Joan.

"Yes, Miss Wentworth."

"The people here look depressed."

"There's a good deal of sickness, Miss Wentworth. Hookworm, and what they used to call malaria. But there isn't any malaria here; it's bad diet—salt pork and soda biscuits. And there's pellagra; it's been here for generations, but it wasn't till last year that the medical commission discovered it."
